

Convenient Portland Vet House Calls

Sometimes it's not easy getting your pet to the vet's office. Animals can often get anxious when taken outside the familiar surroundings of home. They may even put up a fight when it's time to put them in their carrier. If this describes your pet, then here's a bit of good news: you don't have to take your pet to the vet; the vet will come to you!

Believe it or not, house calls are not a thing of the past. At Blue Door Veterinary Services, we believe in offering top-notch services that are convenient for our clients and patients. We're proud to be the very first full-service mobile veterinary hospital serving the pets of Oregon. We make Portland vet house calls so that your pet can receive the care it needs without having to leave home.

- Hospice care for elderly pets

Not only do we provide care for cats and dogs, we are also equipped and trained to treat chickens, rabbits, goats, birds, hamsters, and other non-traditional pets.

Meet Our Vet

Our Portland vet house calls are made by Dr. Meridith Dawson. Dr. Dawson is the founder (and driver!) of our veterinary hospital on wheels.

From a very early age, Dr. Dawson expressed an interest in animal care. She followed that passion into veterinary medicine, eventually earning her DVM from Ohio State University. She enjoys making Portland vet house calls because she gets to witness and help maintain the strong bonds between people and their pets.

If you'd like to find out more information about Dr. Dawson, we invite you to check out the in-depth bio on our site. To make an appointment, just give us a call at 503-819-8040 or e-mail info@bluedoorvet.com.
